known issues:

- the current dictionary/lookup only allows a single entry per word. For the most part this has little impact, but gen/dat cases and some words are not properly represented at this time.
- eventually, the english side will be gramatically marked up in order to :
  - highlight the grammatical function of declension and conjugation
  - highlight the component words of pali compounds
  - show derivation of pali words

Uposatha Preliminary Duties

Before doing the Uposatha the ninefold duty should be done:

- the sweeping of that place;
- the lighting of the lamp there;
- the spreading of the sitting mats;
- preparing water for drinking and using;
- the bringing of the consent of the bhikkhus who are deserving (to give their) consent;
- and of those bhikkhus who do not participate in the Uposatha the bringing of purity too;
- the telling of the season;
- the counting of the bhikkhus,
- and the instructing of the bhikkhunīs.

Herein with regards the first four duties there is no duty of (lighting) the lamp because of the state of there being sunlight now, the three other ones have been done and completed by bhikkhus who know the bhikkhus' protocol.

There is no bringing of consent (and) bringing of purity because of the absence in this boundary of seated bhikkhus who have left arm's length.

The so-called "telling the season" is declaring the season thus: this number (of Uposathas) have passed, this number (of Uposathas) are left.

In this dispensation there are three seasons, (namely) winter, summer, and rains. This is the winter season, and in this season there are eight Uposathas. With this fortnight one Uposatha has arrived, two Uposathas have past, five Uposathas are left. Thus the telling of the season is to be borne in mind by all the venerables.

(Yes, venerable sir)

The so-called "counting of the bhikkhus" is the counting of the bhikkhus (thus): "In this Uposatha-hall so many bhikkhus have gathered for the purpose of (performing) the Uposatha."

In this Uposatha-hall four bhikkhus have gathered.

(Yes, venerable sir)

There is no instruction of the bhikkhunīs now because of their non-existence.

Thus, because of the state of having been done of the preliminary duties, which had an opportunity of doing (them), and because of the naturalness of the preliminary duties which had no opportunity of doing (them), the nine-fold Preliminary Function has been completed.

When the preliminary duty has been finished:

If the day is a certain one of the fourteenth (day Uposathas), fifteenth (day Uposathas), or the Unity (-Uposathas), like today is the fifteenth day Uposatha.

1. Whatever bhikkhus are entitled (to carry out the legal) act, who are qualified for the Uposatha of the Community, four or more than that, regular, who have not committed an offence of pārājika, who have not been suspended by the Community,
2. and they, not having left arms-length, remain in one boundary,
3. and if among them common offences, founded on eating at the wrong time and so on, are not found,
4. and if among them within arms-length there is no person fit to be excluded, who is to be excluded from arms-length by making (him go) outside, then that (legal) act of Uposatha endowed with these four characteristics is called “(one that) has reached suitability,” (and is) fit to perform.

Having known the state of reached suitability of the (legal) act of Uposatha, it is to be approved of by the Community (that) the Uposatha is being done now.”

(Yes, venerable sir)

Elder: “Having made to undertake the preparations and preliminary duties I make the invitation to recite the Disciplinary Code with the approval of the seated community.”

NOTES TO THE PUBBA-KICCAṂ

1. If the recitation is held at night, change “Tattha purimesu catūsu kiccesu padīpa-kiccaṁ idāni suriy’ālokassa atthitāya n’atthi. Aparāni tīpi” to “Tattha purimāni cattāri”

If there are bhikkhus outside of hatthapāsa but within the territory (sīmā) who have sent their consent and purity, then for a recitation during the day, the entire passage (between “Tattha...honti.”): “Tattha purimesu chasu kiccesu padīpa-kiccaṁ idāni suriy’ālokassa atthitāya n’atthi. Aparāni pañca bhikkhūnaṁ vattaṁ jānantehi bhikkhūhi 2 katāni pariniṭṭhitāni honti.”

For a recitation at night in the same situation, the entire passage should be:

“Tattha purimāni cha bhikkhūnaṁ vattaṁ jānantehi bhikkhūhi 2 katāni pariniṭṭhitāni honti.”

2. If sāmaṇeras help with the tasks, change “bhikkhūhi” to “sāmaṇerehi-pi bhikkhūhi-pi”: “Novices and bhikkhus....” If laypeople living in the monastery help with the tasks, change this to “ārāmikhehi-pi bhikkhūhi-pi”: “Monastery dwellers and bhikkhus....”

3. Modify according to the season:

- winter season - “hemantotu”
- hot season - “gimhotu.”
- rainy season - “vassānotu.”

4. Please refer to the appropriate “Telling of the Season” on the opposite page.

A Pavarana section isn’t complete at this time.

Additional info from dhammyut text here, not sure if consistent with the chart, but here for comparison during draft review...

(During a normal rainy season, change “aṭṭha uposathā” to “sattā ca uposathā ekā ca pavāraṇā”: “Seven uposathas and one pavāraṇā.” During a hot or cold season with an additional month, change it to “adhikamāsa-vasena dasa uposathā”: “Because of the additional month, ten uposathās....” During a rainy season with an additional month, change it to “adhikamāsa-vasena nava ca uposathā ekā ca pavāraṇā”: Because of the additional month, nine uposathas and one pavāraṇā....”)

5. If chanter is junior, “āvuso”

6. Substitute “cattāro” for the appropriate number of bhikkhus present, per the following page.

7. Substitute “cātuddaso” if it is a 14-day Uposatha

The Disciplinary Code of the Bhikkhu

Homage to the Blessed, Noble, and Perfectly Enlightened One. (3 times)

Venerable Sir, let the Community listen to me! Today is a fifteenth (day) Observance. If it is suitable to the Community , (then) the Community should do the Observance (and) should recite the Disciplinary Code.

What is the preliminary for the Community? Venerables, announce the purity, (for) I shall recite the Disciplinary Code. Let us all (who are) present listen to it carefully (and) let us take it to mind.

Whoever may have an offence, he should disclose (it). When there is no offence, (then it) is to be silent.

By the silence I shall know the Venerables (with the thought): “(They are) pure.” As an answer occurs to (a bhikkhu) who is asked individually, just so in such an assembly (as this one) there is the announcement up to the third time.

But if any bhikkhu, (who is) remembering (an offence) when the announcement is being made up to the third time, should not disclose the existing offence, there is (a further offence of) deliberate false speech for him.

Now, venerables, deliberate false speech has been called an obstructive act by the Fortunate One. Therefore, by a bhikkhu who is remembering, who has committed (an offence), who is desiring purification, an existing offence is to be disclosed; because, (after) having disclosed (it), there is comfort for him.

The recitation of the introduction is finished.

Nidān’uddeso niṭṭhito

Herein these four cases involving disqualification come up for recitation.

1. If any bhikkhu (who) has entered upon the training and livelihood for bhikkhus, not having rejected the training, not having disclosed (his) incapability, should engage in the act of sexual intercourse, even with just a female animal, he is disqualified, not in communion.
2. If any bhikkhu should take (what has) not been given from a village or wilderness-area, which is reckoned as theft, (and) the taking of what has not been given (is) of the kind (that) on account of (it) kings, having caught the robber, would physically punish or imprison or banish (him, saying):
“You are a robber! You are a fool! You are insane! You are a thief!,” a bhikkhu taking (what has) not been given of such a kind, is also disqualified, not in communion.
3. If any bhikkhu should deliberately deprive a human being of life, or should seek an assassin for him, or should praise the attractiveness of death, or should incite (him) to death (saying):
“Dear man, what (use) is this bad, wretched life for you? Death is better than life for you!” should he, (having) such-thought-and- mind, (having such-) thought-and-intention, praise in manifold ways the beauty of death or incite (him) to death, he also is disqualified, not in communion.
4. If any bhikkhu, (though) not directly knowing (it), should claim a superhuman state pertaining to himself, (a state of) knowing and seeing (that is) suitable for the noble (ones), (saying):
“Thus I know! Thus I see!,” (and) then, on another occasion, (whether) being interrogated or not being interrogated, having committed (the offence), desiring purification, should say so:
“(Although) not knowing (it,) I spoke thus (saying): ‘I know,’ not seeing (it, I spoke, saying:) ‘I see.’ I bluffed vainly (and) falsely,” except (when said) in overestimation, he also is disqualified, not in communion.

Venerables, the four cases involving disqualification have been recited, a bhikkhu who has committed any one of them, does not obtain the communion with bhikkhus. As (he was) before, so (he is) after (committing it): he is one who is disqualified, not in communion.

Concerning that I ask the Venerables: (Are you) pure in this?

A second time again I ask: (Are you) pure in this?

A third time again I ask: (Are you) pure in this?

The venerables are pure in this, therefore there is silence, so do I bear this (in mind).

The recitation of the (cases involving) disqualification is finished

Venerables, these thirteen cases (concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure) come up for recitation.

1. The intentional emission of semen, except in a dream: (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).
2. If any bhikkhu, under the influence of an altered mind, should engage in (intimate) physical contact together with a woman (such as): the holding of a hand, or holding a braid (of hair), or caressing any limb: (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).
3. If any bhikkhu, under the influence of an altered mind, should speak suggestively with depraved words to a woman, like a young man to a young woman, (with words) concerned with sexual intercourse: (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).
4. If any bhikkhu, under the influence of an altered mind, (and) in the presence of a woman, should speak praise about the ministering to himself with sex:
“Sister, this is the best of ministerings: she who would minister to a virtuous, good natured celibate like me with this act!,” (which is something) connected with sexual intercourse: (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).
5. If any bhikkhu should engage in mediating a man’s intention to a woman, or a woman’s intention to a man, for being a wife or for being a mistress, even for being one on (just) that occasion: (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).
6. By a bhikkhu who is having a hut , which is without an owner, (and) is designated for himself, built by means of his own begged requisites, (that hut) is to be built according to the (proper) measure.

(Then) those bhikkhus should be spoken to thus by the bhikkhus: “Venerables, don’t say so! 12. Now, a bhikkhu is of a nature difficult to be spoken to, (and when) being righteously spoken to by the bhikkhus about the training precepts included in the recitation, he makes himself (one) who can not be spoken to (saying):

“Venerables, don’t say anything good or bad to me, and I too shall not say anything good or bad to the venerables! Venerables, refrain from speaking to me!”

(Then) that bhikkhu should be spoken to thus by the bhikkhus: “Let the venerable one not make himself (one) who cannot be spoken to. Let the venerable one make himself (one) who can be spoken to. Let the venerable one speak to the bhikkhus with righteousness and the monks too will speak to the venerable one with righteousness. For the Blessed One’s assembly has grown thus, that is, by the speaking of one to another, by the rehabilitating of one another,” and (if) that bhikkhu being spoken to thus by the bhikkhus should persist in the same way (as before), (then) that bhikkhu is to be argued with up to three times by the bhikkhus for the relinquishing of that (course), (and if that bhikkhu,) being argued with up to three times, should relinquish that (course), then this is good, (but) if he should not relinquish (it): (this is a case concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure).

13. Now, a bhikkhu lives dependent upon a certain village or town who is a spoiler of families, who is of bad behaviour. His bad behaviour is seen and is heard about, and the families spoilt by him are seen and heard about.

That bhikkhu is to be spoken to thus by the bhikkhus: “The venerable one is a spoiler of families, one who is of bad behaviour. The bad behaviour of the venerable one is seen and is heard about, and the families spoilt by the venerable one are seen and are heard about. Let the venerable one depart from this dwelling-place! Enough of you dwelling here!”

and (if) that bhikkhu being spoken to thus by the bhikkhus should say thus to those bhikkhus: “The bhikkhus are driven by desire; the bhikkhus are driven by anger; the bhikkhus are driven by delusion; the bhikkhus are driven by fear. They banish someone because of this kind of offence, (but) another one they do not banish.”

Venerables, the thirteen cases (concerning) the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure) have been recited, nine (cases) are of the offence-at-once (-class), four (cases) are of the up-to-the-third (time admonition-class).

A bhikkhu who has committed any one of (these offenses), has to stay on probation with no choice (in the matter) for as many days as he knowingly conceals (it). Moreover, by a bhikkhu who has stayed on the probation, a six-night state of deference to (other) bhikkhus has to be entered upon.

(When) the bhikkhu (is one by whom) the deference has been performed: wherever there may be a community of bhikkhus, which is a group of twenty (or more bhikkhus), there that bhikkhu should be reinstated. If a community of bhikkhus, which is a group of twenty deficient by even one (bhikkhu), should reinstate that bhikkhu (then) that bhikkhu is not reinstated, and those monks are blameworthy. This is the proper procedure here

The recitation concerning the community in the beginning and the rest (of the procedure) is finished.

Venerables, these two uncertain cases come up for recitation.

1. If any bhikkhu should sit down together with a woman, one (man) with one (woman), privately, on a concealed seat (that is) sufficiently fit for doing (it), (and then if) a female lay-follower whose words can be trusted having seen that, should speak according to one of three cases; according to disqualification, according to what concerns the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure), or according to expiation, (then) the bhikkhu who is admitting the sitting down should be made to do (what is) according to one of three cases; according to disqualification, or according to what concerns the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure), or according to expiation, or according to whatever that female lay-follower whose words can be trusted should say, according to that the bhikkhu is to be made to do. This is an uncertain case.
2. But even if the seat is neither concealed nor sufficiently fit for doing it, but is sufficient for speaking suggestively to a woman with depraved words:

if any bhikkhu should sit down on such a seat together with a woman—one (man) with one (woman), privately—(and then if) a female lay-follower whose words can be trusted having seen that, should speak according to one of two cases; according to what concerns the community in the beginning and in the rest, or according to expiation, (then) the bhikkhu admitting the sitting down is to be made to do according to one of two cases; according to what concerns the community in the beginning and in the rest (of the procedure), or according to expiation, or according to whatever that female lay-follower whose words can be trusted should say, according to that the bhikkhu is to be made to do, this too is an uncertain case.

Venerables, the two uncertain cases have been recited.

2. When the robe (-cloth) has been finished by a bhikkhu, when the kaṭhina (-frame-privileges) have been withdrawn, if even for a single night a bhikkhu should stay apart from the three robes, except with the authorization of bhikkhus, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

If (the robe-cloth) should not be (enough for) the completion (of the robe), (then) for a month at the most that robe (-cloth) can be put aside by that bhikkhu for the completion of the deficiency (of robe-cloth), when there is an expectation (that he will get more robe-cloth); if he should put (it) aside more than that, even when there is an expectation (that he will get more robe-cloth), (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.
4. If any bhikkhu should have a used robe (-cloth) washed, dyed, or beaten by an unrelated bhikkhunī, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.)
5. If any bhikkhu should accept a robe (-cloth) from the hand of an unrelated bhikkhunī, except in an exchange (of robes), (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

Here the occasion is this: he is a bhikkhu whose robe has been robbed or whose robe has been lost; this is the occasion here.

7. If the unrelated male householder or female householder should invite him to take (as many) robe (-cloth)s (as he likes), (then) robe (-cloths for) an upper (robe) together with an inner (robe) can be accepted at the most from that robe (-cloth) by that bhikkhu; if he should accept more from that (robe-cloth), (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

8. Now, if an robe-fund has been set up for a bhikkhu by an unrelated male householder or female householder (thinking): "Having traded this robe-fund for a robe, I shall clothe the bhikkhu named so and so with a robe," and then if that bhikkhu, previously uninvited, having approached (the householder), should make a suggestion about the robe (-cloth) (saying): "It would be good indeed, Sir, (if you) having traded this robe-fund for a such and such a robe, were to clothe me (with a robe)," (if the suggestion is made) out of a liking for what is fine, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

9. Now, if separate robe-funds have been set up for a bhikkhu by both unrelated male householders or female householders (thinking): "Having traded these separate robe-funds for separate robes, we shall clothe the bhikkhu named so and so with robes," and then if that bhikkhu, previously uninvited, having approached (the householders), should make a suggestion about the robe (saying): "It would be good indeed, Sirs, (if you) having traded these separate robe-funds for a such and such a robe, were to clothe me (with a robe), (you) both being one (donor)," (if the suggestion is made) out of a liking for what is fine, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

10. Now, if a king or a king's official or a brahmin or a male householder should convey by messenger a robe-fund for a bhikkhu (saying): "Having traded this robe-fund for a robe, clothe the bhikkhu named so and so with a robe," and if that messenger, having approached that bhikkhu, should say so: "Venerable Sir, this robe-fund has been brought for the venerable one. Let the venerable one accept the robe-fund!"

and then if that bhikkhu, uninvited beforehand, having approached the cloth-weavers, should make a suggestion about the robe-cloth (saying): “Friends, this robe-cloth which is being woven for me: make (it) long, wide, thick, well woven, well diffused, well scraped, and well plucked! Certainly we will also (then) present a little something to the sirs,” and if that bhikkhu, having said so, should present a little something, even just a little alms-food, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

28. For the ten days coming up to the three-month Kattikā full moon: if extraordinary robe (-cloth) should become available to a bhikkhu, (then) after considering (it as) extraordinary (robe-cloth, it) can be accepted by a bhikkhu, having been accepted, (it) is to be put aside until the occasion of the robe-season; if he should put (it) aside for more than that, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.
29. Now, the Kattika-full-moon has been observed. (There are) those wilderness lodgings which are considered risky, which are dangerous. A bhikkhu dwelling in such kind of lodgings, who is wishing (to do so), may put aside one of the three robes inside an inhabited area.
- And if there may be any reason for that bhikkhu for dwelling apart from that robe, the bhikkhu can dwell apart from that robe for six days at the most; if he should dwell apart for more than that, except with the authorisation of bhikkhus, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.
30. If any bhikkhu should knowingly allocate for himself a gain belonging to (and) allocated to the community, (this is a case) involving expiation with forfeiture.

The section on bowls is third.

Venerables, the thirty cases involving expiation with forfeiture have been recited.

Concerning this I ask the Venerables: (Are you) pure in this?

A second time again I ask: (Are you) pure in this?

A third time again I ask: (Are you) pure in this?

The Venerables are pure in this, therefore there is silence, thus I keep this (in mind).

1. If any bhikkhu, having accepted (it) with his own hand from the hand of an unrelated bhikkhunī who has entered an inhabited area (for alms), should chew uncooked food or eat cooked food),

(it) is to be acknowledged by that bhikkhu (saying): “Friend(s), I have committed a blameworthy act which is unsuitable, which is to be acknowledged; I acknowledge it.”

2. Now, bhikkhus who have been invited are eating among families, and if a bhikkhunī who is giving directions is standing there (saying), “Give curry here, give rice here!”

(then) by those bhikkhus that bhikkhunī is to be dismissed (saying), “Go away, sister, for as long as the bhikkhus eat!,” and if not even one bhikkhu would speak against (it, so as) to dismiss that bhikkhunī (saying), “Go away, sister, for as long as the bhikkhus eat!,”

(then it) is to be acknowledged by those bhikkhus, “Friend(s), we have committed a blameworthy act which is unsuitable, which is to be acknowledged; we acknowledge it.”

3. Now, (there are) those families which are agreed upon as trainees: if any bhikkhu who has not been invited beforehand, who is not ill, should chew uncooked food or eat cooked food having accepted (it) with his own hand in families who are of such a kind, who are considered trainees,

(then it) is to be acknowledged by that bhikkhu: “Friend(s), I have committed a blameworthy act which is unsuitable, which is to be acknowledged; I acknowledge it.”

4. Now, (there are) those wilderness lodgings which are considered risky, which are dangerous: if any bhikkhu, (staying) in lodgings which are of such a kind, without having announced (the danger) beforehand, having accepted (the food) with his own hand inside the monastery, (and then) not being ill, should chew uncooked food or eat cooked food,
